

Why do our regions boast world-class museums, vibrant street art scenes, and nationally recognized cultural events? The answer is you.

For decades, the collective action of arts supporters like you has rippled out across our communities, from Raleigh to Nashville, from Columbus to Greenville, creating more vibrant and connected regions.

That's why Messer proudly participates in the annual Messer Arts & Community Campaign. Your gift supports numerous organizations, projects, and artists creating thousands of performances, exhibitions, arts education programs, public art, and more across our footprint.

Through the Messer Arts & Community Campaign, we are proud to support arts and Community organizations across our footprint, including:

- Arts & Science Council (Charlotte)
- Greater Columbus Arts Council (Columbus)
- Culture Works (Dayton)
- Metropolitan Arts Council (Greenville)
- Indiana Sports Corp (Indianapolis)
- Arts & Culture Alliance (Knoxville)
- LexArts (Lexington)
- Fund for the Arts (Louisville)
- Frist Art Museum (Nashville)
- United Arts Council of Raleigh & Wake Counties (Raleigh)

Pledging is simple and only takes a minute of your time. Just follow the link below to get started:

On the pledge site when you click "Sign In" or "Click to Give" you will be prompted to input your work email address, then follow the prompts to sign in with a password or create an account. If you create an account, you will receive an email from StratusLIVE to verify your email address.

A "one-time code" or "forgot password" function is available to those who are signing in vs. creating a new account.

Click here to get started

Your contribution directly supports these vital regional organizations, helping to create and sustain vibrant cultural communities. Support the Messer Arts & Community Campaign today and be part of what we can achieve together.

Sincerely,

Matt Barney

Need help? E-mail help@artswave.org or call ArtsWave at 513.871.2787.